

The New York Times

Monday, February 18, 2008

Review Summary

Contemporary smooth jazz giant Bob Baldwin - an acclaimed keyboardist and longtime collaborator with the likes of Grover Washington, Jr., Freddie Jackson and George Benson - headlines the exclusive live concert film Bob Baldwin: Memoirs from the Hudson. In it, Baldwin plays a number of rousing and inventive jazz tunes before an enthusiastic audience at the Croton Point Park Music Festival in the Big Apple. ~ Nathan Southern, All Movie Guide

Movie Details

Title: Bob Baldwin: Memoirs from the Hudson

(selected portions of press clipping taken from nytimes.com)